A RESPECTED LEADER IN 401(K) RECORDKEEPING

No matter how hard you have worked over the years, achieving a comfortable retirement won't just happen. It takes planning and financial discipline to make the right decisions to prepare for the future.

We Can Help.

Mutual of Omaha Retirement Services built our 401(k) product to combine quality services from industry leaders into a cost-effective retirement solution for you and your plan sponsors. We've partnered with Ascensus, the largest independent retirement services provider in the United States, for 401(k) recordkeeping services.

TECHNICAL EXPERTISE

Maintaining more than 40,000 retirement plans, Ascensus is a major provider of plan documents and consulting services within the industry. They bring a level of expertise that is highly beneficial when interpreting plan document provisions and Internal Revenue Service and Department of Labor regulations.

BEST IN CLASS SERVICE

Ascensus has the scale necessary to support competitive pricing as well as major investments in technology and service, including mobile applications, online enrollment capabilities, retirement outcomes-based education and other tools to help participants manage their retirement goals.

Their efforts have paid off. In a recent survey,¹ the company received Best-in-Class status in employer and employee service representative support, among others. They are also among the top three 401(k) plan providers by plan count.²

A PARTNER YOU CAN TRUST

With $57 billion in retirement assets, Ascensus provides recordkeeping services for:

- 1.7+ million eligible retirement plan participants
- More than 40,000 retirement plans
- Plans of all sizes (start ups to plans with more than $1 billion in assets)
